NaTakallam in Primary & Secondary Schools: Case Studies

Our Collaboration:

Greenup County High School has partnered with NaTakallam for multiple years, providing students with the opportunity to engage with NaTakallam's Language Partners for language learning and cultural exchange.

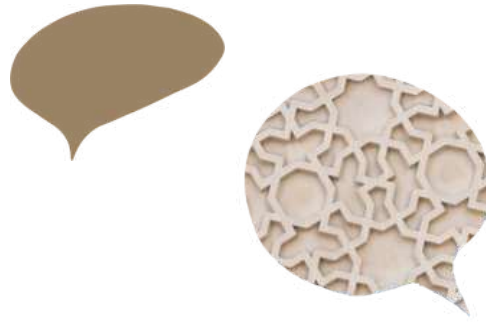

Expanding Global Awareness through Language

Language Support: NaTakallam connects students with native speakers to enhance their language learning experience through group classroom sessions.

Cultural Empathy: Students in rural Kentucky broaden their global perspective, increasing empathy for global issues.

Global & Language Knowledge: By working with Language Partners, students not only improve their language skills but also expand their understanding of global cultures.

The American School in London

Our Collaboration:

The American School in London and NaTakallam collaborate in year-long contracts with a number of sessions that ASL educators are able to use at any point throughout the year.

NaTakallam provides the students with Cross-Cultural Conversation and Refugee Voices sessions throughout the academic year.

Educators at The American School in London contact NaTakallam throughout the year whenever a session is fit for the class curriculum, and NaTakallam pairs them with suitable Language Partners.

NaTakallam offers Arabic, Spanish and French at the American School in London.

Impact:

Nearly 550 students at The ASL have been able to engage in NaTakallam sessions and broaden their language skills and global cultural empathy!

School Teacher Testimonies

NATAKALLAM

“

"This helped my students gain empathy skills and a true understanding of geopolitics, especially America's decisions and how they affect people globally."

—Teacher at Scituate High School

"Our class sessions with NaTakallam made the curriculum come alive. It was incredibly meaningful and life changing... My students left the class sessions with a greater appreciation of what it means to be a refugee as well as the fact that being a refugee is only one part of a person's identity. I am so grateful to NaTakallam and I can't wait to do this again!"

—Teacher at Whitney Young High School, Chicago

"Many of my students will never travel outside of the United States. There is a whole world that they are missing. As their teacher, I feel I need to bridge that gap and provide the window for them to look through and meet that person, discover the opportunities and peek at the rest of the world.

NaTakallam helps me complete that challenge. "

—Teacher at Greenup County High School
